

Main Route:

GET => "/" => Landing Page

- This endpoint will show the starting point of my application and will be the first thing the user sees

Login Routes:

GET => "/login" => Login Page

- This endpoint will show the Login Page to the user

POST => "/login" => Result

- A successful response will respond with 200 and REDIRECT to the user's dashboard
- An error response will respond with a 400/404 and show Login errors

Register Routes:

GET => "/register" => Register Page

- This endpoint will show the Register Page to the user

POST => "/register" => Result

- A successful response will respond with 201 and REDIRECT to the user's profile page
- An error response will respond with a 400 and show Register errors

Profile Routes:

GET => "/profile" => Profile Page

- A successful response will show the User Profile Page
- A response may redirect to Login Page IF not Logged In
- A response may show 401 Forbidden if applicable

PUT => "/profile" => Profile Page

- A successful response will respond with 200 and save the user's profile
- An error response will respond with a 400 and show update errors

Resources Routes:

GET => "/resources" => Resources Page

- A successful response will show the Resource Page
- If the user is logged in, it will show the user's resources at the top
- If the user is not logged in, it will show a default collection of resources

GET => "/resources?search=query" => Resources Page

- A successful response will respond with 200 and return search results based on the search query parameter
- An error response will respond with a 400 and show search errors if the query is invalid or missing

POST => "/resources/:id" => Resources Page

- If the user is logged in, successful response will show respond with 200 and save the resource to the user's profile
- If the user is logged in and there was an error response, it will respond with a 400 and show save errors
- If the user is not logged in, a response may redirect to Login Page
- If the user is not logged in, a response may show 401 Forbidden if applicable

Wellness Tips Routes:

GET => "/tips" => Wellness Tips Page

- A successful response will show the Wellness Tips Page
- If the user is logged in, it will show the user's saved wellness tips at the top
- If the user is not logged in, it will show a default collection of general wellness tips

GET => "/tips?search=query" => Wellness Tips Page

- A successful response will respond with 200 and return search results based on the search query parameter
- An error response will respond with a 400 and show search errors if the query is invalid or missing

POST => "/tips/:id" => Wellness Tips Page

- If the user is logged in, successful response will show respond with 200 and save the tip to the user's profile
- If the user is logged in and there was an error response, it will respond with a 400 and show save errors
- If the user is not logged in, a response may redirect to Login Page
- If the user is not logged in, a response may show 401 Forbidden if applicable